

Family Survey Example

for Curbside Meals

Inviting families to provide input on your curbside meals service and menus helps them feel engaged in the process. It can also provide valuable feedback about new menu options, pickup locations and times, or challenges that may keep families from participating. Use the sample questions below to build out your own survey. Surveys can be distributed through email, an online tool, or the poll feature on social media platforms.

1. Do you currently pick up curbside meals?
  - a. If no, please share why:
2. We strive to provide meals that are both healthy and appealing to our students. Please provide feedback on the menu items below. (Note: Consider using a ranking system on this question, such as "0: My child does not eat this" to "5: This is my child's favorite." Include as many menu items as possible, with pictures if survey tool allows. See example menu items below.)
  - a. Bosco sticks
  - b. Chicken nuggets
  - c. Chicken drumstick
  - d. Cheese pizza
  - e. Mini corn dogs
  - f. Taco snack
3. Other than those listed above, what menu items would you or your child like to see offered in our curbside meals?
4. Would you be interested in picking up entrees in bulk amounts for the week versus individual servings of a variety of entrees? (Include this question only if bulk service is a possibility for your operation.)
  - a. If yes, what entree items would you prefer? (See note above.)

5. Fruit and vegetables are an important part of our meals. Currently we serve ...
(Insert items or show pictures if possible.)
  - a. What other fruit and/or vegetable items would you or your child like to see offered?
  - b. What else should we know about your fruit and vegetable needs?
6. Our current meal pickup schedule is ... (Insert schedule or link to schedule.)
  - a. Are these pickup times and locations convenient for you? Why or why not?
7. What other barriers exist, if any, that keep you from picking up meals?
8. Please share any suggestions for improvements to our curbside pickup service.